PROGETTISTA/DESIGNER
WALID FLEIHAN

In 1958, Walid Fleihan was born in Sofar, Lebanon.

After finishing his Associate's Degree in Interior Design in Beirut University College, he travelled to the United States for continued study in the field of interiors.

In 1984 he graduated from the New York School of Interior Design - earning both a Diploma in Interior Architecture and Design and a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree - to begin his career as a senior architect in a number of companies throughout the United States, Lebanon, Kuwait and United Arab Emirates.

In 1993 he established his own firm – Afkar – which is specialized in high budget commercial and residential interiors, traditional stone façade architectural designs and interior stone arcades in residential villas.

In the years to follow, he managed to establish a rich portfolio, which includes A - commercial projects like:

- Porsche Design – Intercontinental Hotel – Dubai - UAE,
- Reebok Offices and warehouse – Jebel Ali Free Zone – Dubai – UAE
- SEB development Regional Office & Showroom – Warba Center – Dubai – UAE
- Oliver Lapidus Boutique - Wafi Center Dubai - UAE
- Guy Laroche Boutique - Wafi Center - Dubai - UAE

And, a number of luxurious Residential Villas in Lebanon, United Arab Emirates, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia & United kingdom.

Currently, he is involved in two prestigious Residential projects in Dubai – UAE, one is an Open budget Duplex Penthouse and the other is a high end luxurious Villa in Dubai – UAE.

Throughout his professional career, and specifically from year1996 until the year 2002, he earned various International awards from Institutes in both The United States and The United Kingdom.
